

Overview

The Gardeen Monitoring System is powered by PacSana and provides peace of mind that your loved one is active within the home. In addition, you can be notified of unusual events, such as a button press to provide additional reassurance.

A bracelet worn by the individual sends data to two gateway devices within the home.

